

WONDERFUL SPORT. Frank Baxter furnished the power as Joe Marks enjoyed a ride on the surf board, at Atlantic City, yesterday afternoon. These boys felt no effects of the heat wave. Ledger Photo Service.

RAG CATS. Hundreds of girls promenading the Atlantic City Boardwalk were carrying them. Florence Mendel (left) and May Ziegler. L. P. S.

ROMPING. A FEW OF THE FOLKS that the photographer met on the Atlantic City beach. They said they were from Philadelphia and were just down for the day. Ledger Photo Service.

A GREAT LIFE. Many folks heeded the weatherman's advice to hunt a cool place on Sunday because of the forecast heat wave. Miss Edna Wilfong, Jerry and Miss Lillian North were on the sands. Ledger Photo Service.

OPENING DAY REGATTA. A long list of interesting canoe events attracted hundreds to the Philadelphia Canoe Club, at Wissahickon. Miss Miriam Eisenhardt, among those who assisted the committee. Fullam and Barron, of the Philadelphia Canoe Club, had an accident in one of the races and were caught as they swam with their water-filled canoe to the finishing point. Ledger Photo Service.

SPEED. Three of the motorcycle pilots during the second lap of the twenty-five mile contest on the Belmont track, Narberth. Minnick went over the finishing point a winner. De Simone and Morrison followed. Ledger Photo Service.

IN THE HIGH JUMP. Susan Stevenson, a pupil of the McCall Continuation School, competing at the outing on Belmont plateau. Five hundred took part. Ledger Photo Service.

RETURNS FROM EUROPE. Felix M. Warburg, the New York banker on Aquitania. C. N.

MISS GLADYS UNGER, playwright, has returned to New York on the S. S. Aquitania, after a long stay in European countries. C. N.

FRANCIS M. GOODWIN, of Spokane, the new Assistant Secretary of the Interior. Central News Photo.

MRS. JACK McCULLOUGH arrives on the Aquitania, wearing a harem veil as a protection against sunburn. W. W. P.

HELPING NEW YORK MILK FUNDS. Jean and Peggy Sanders at country place of Mrs. Payne Whitney, L. I. W. W. P.

THE OLDEST "GRAD." Alumni members of the University of Pennsylvania arranged special honors for Edmond C. Pechin, of the class of 1856, on Franklin Field. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

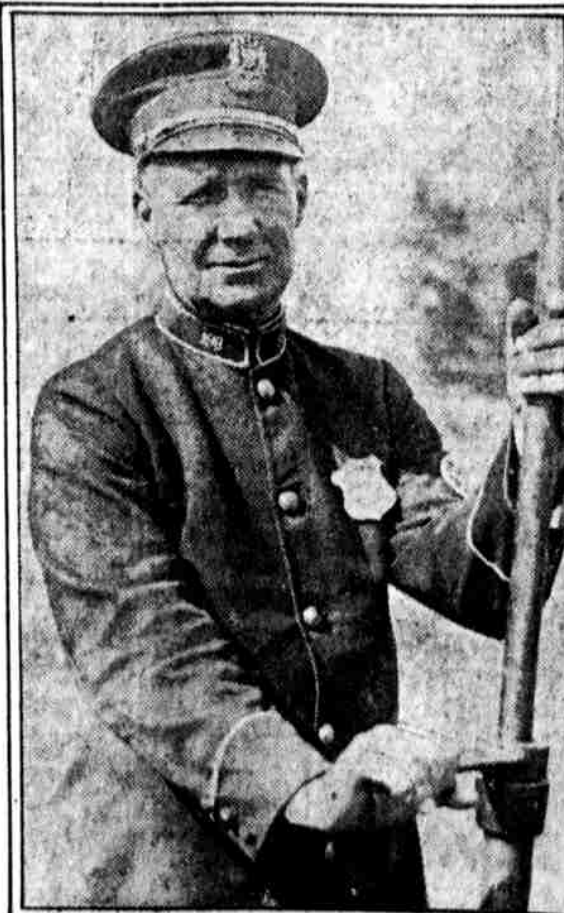

AT THE ANVIL. Peter Miller, 408 Master street (left) and James Dunn, 753 North Seventeenth street, straightening automobile axles in the shop of the Thornton-Fuller Auto Company, Twenty-fourth and Bainbridge streets. L. P. S.

GOING TO PARIS. Mrs. Arturo de Heren, of Wyncote, passenger on S. S. La France. She will return in October K. V.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN WILLIAM MASSEY, the old-time ball player, who does traffic duty at Broad street and Roosevelt boulevard. L. P. S.

DRUGGISTS HAVE OUTING. Delegates to the convention of the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Association were guests at the H. K. Mulford plant, Glenolden. At the left, Milton Campbell, president of the company, is chalking the baseball field. George B. Hujick is the catcher. L. P. S.

